

The Death of Queen Elizabeth II

The Death of Queen Elizabeth II

Elizabeth was born on 21st
April 1926.

She passed away yesterday
afternoon aged 96,
surrounded by her family.

Her death is of national and international importance.

The Royal Family

The Queen was married to Philip, the Duke of Edinburgh. They have four children and eight grandchildren. Two of their most well-known grandchildren are Prince William and Prince Harry.

The Coronation

In 1952, when she was 25, Elizabeth's father King George VI died.

She became queen on 6th February 1952 and was crowned on 2nd June 1953.

This year we celebrated her platinum jubilee, marking 70 years as our Queen.

The Role of the Queen

- The Queen was Head of the Church of England. She appointed Bishops and Archbishops on the advice of the Prime Minister.
- The Queen was Head of the Armed Forces. She was the only person who can declare and end war with other countries.

The Queen was Head of the Commonwealth and has made more than 200 trips abroad to visit Commonwealth countries.

She also worked with more than 600 charities.

Significance of the Queen

- The queen represents continuity and stability in our country.
- She loved our country and brought us together.
- She dedicated her life in service and duty of our country.
- She represents wisdom, dignity, virtue and endeavour.

A Time of Change

King Charles III and Queen Consort Camilla

State Funeral

The state funeral will be held at Westminster Abbey.

There will be two minutes' silence across the nation.

After the one-hour service, a large ceremonial procession will accompany the coffin to Hyde Park, where it will be transferred from gun carriage to state hearse and travel to Windsor.

After a procession through Windsor, a committal service will be held at St George's Chapel, Windsor Castle, during which the coffin will be lowered into the royal vault, before being buried in the King George VI memorial chapel, located inside St George's Chapel.

Let us take a moment to pay our respects.

Duty
Service
Wisdom
Dignity
Endeavor