

Your Learning Route Through KS5 Politics

US Democracy and Participation

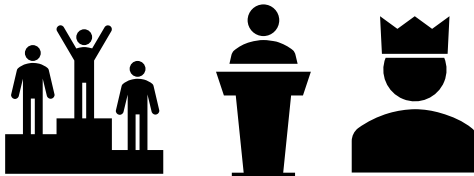

Revision and Review

“Our approach to Politics is to enquire, dissect and question and this is expected of students across the breadth of the course”

US Supreme Court

US President

US Constitution

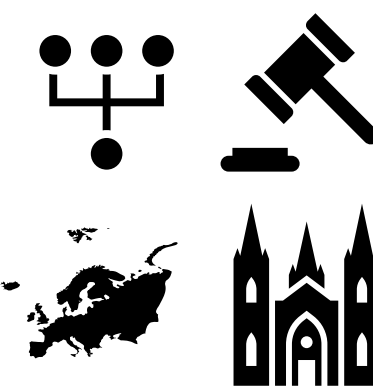

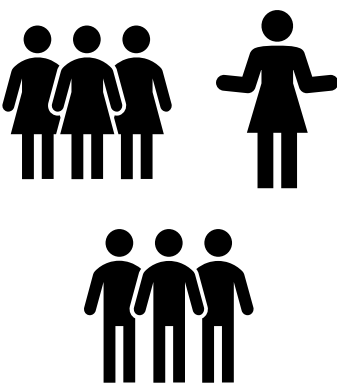

US Congress

“Politics is a focused A-Level course which looks at the nature and purpose of the systems used in both the UK and US”

Ideologies: Feminism

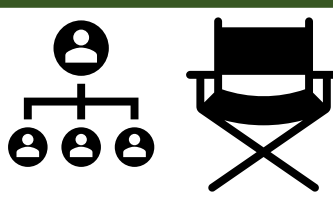

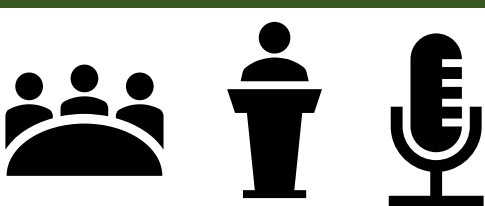

Relationship between branches of government

The UK Constitution

The UK Parliament

The UK Prime Minister

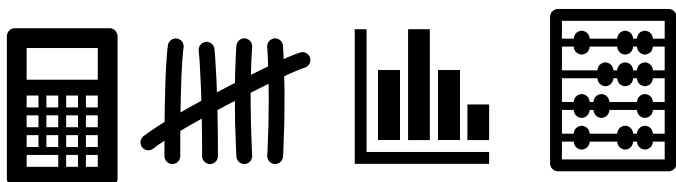

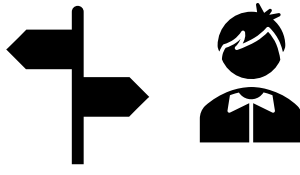

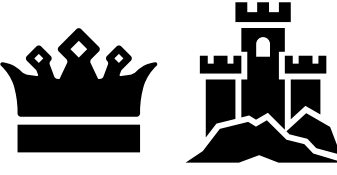

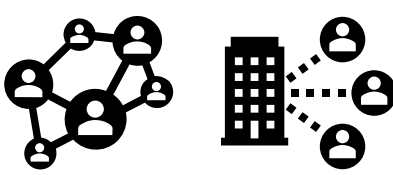

“The intention behind studying politics is to become aware of the processes involved in everything from voting to rights protections, from legal cases to the influence of the media “

Ideologies: Socialism

Ideologies: Conservatism

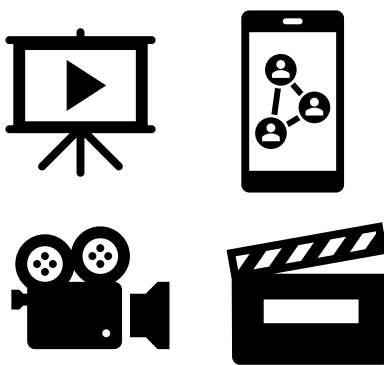

Ideologies: Liberalism

UK Electoral Systems

UK: Voting Behaviour and the Media

“Students studying politics will be rigorous critical thinkers and engage in a host of current world events, resulting in a far more complex understanding of the political world-view and its component parts“

UK Political Parties

Democracy and Participation

